PIXIE

Coloring Book

North Lincoln County Historical Museum

This Pixie Coloring Book was created from art by museum volunteer Connie Owston who recreated the Pixie Kitchen's famous Pixie Garden. Funding for this free coloring book was provided by the Mildred and Marie Children's Fund. The Pixie Kitchen was a family favorite restaurant from the 1950's to the 1980's. It was know for its yummy food and entertaining atmosphere that was fun for children of all ages.
